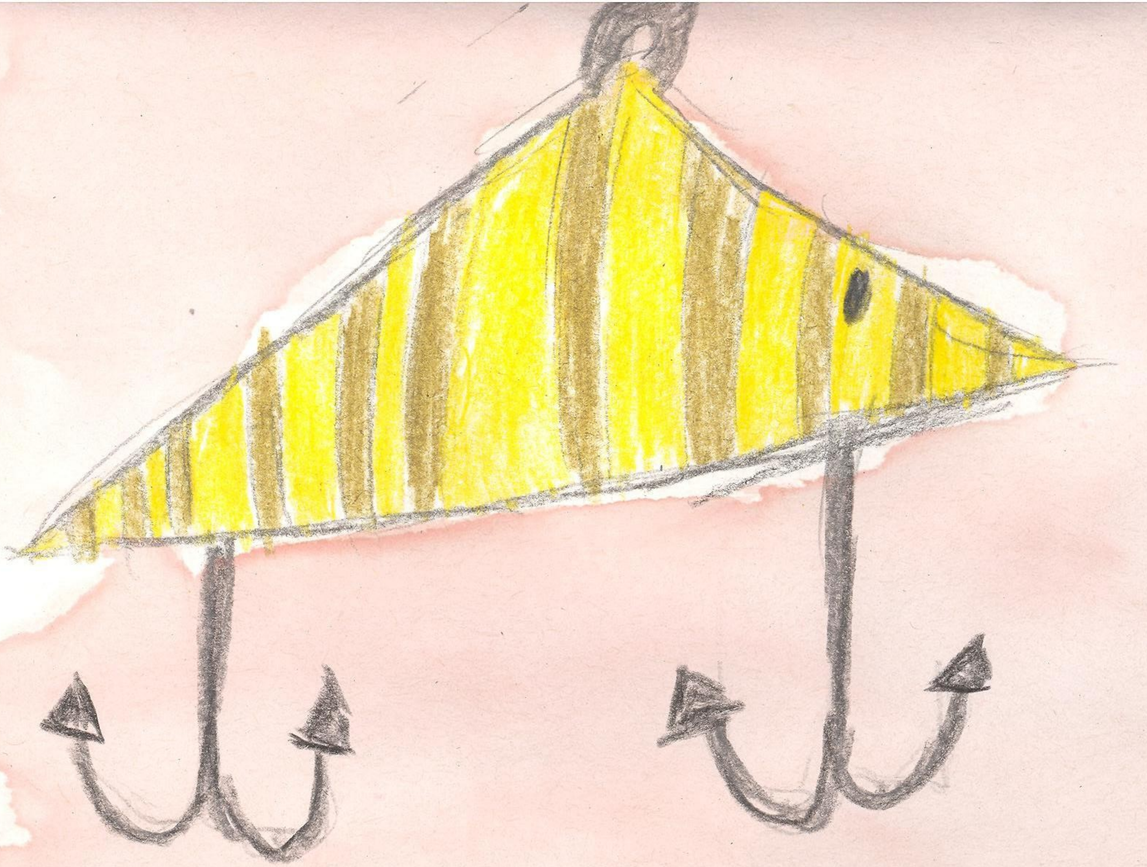
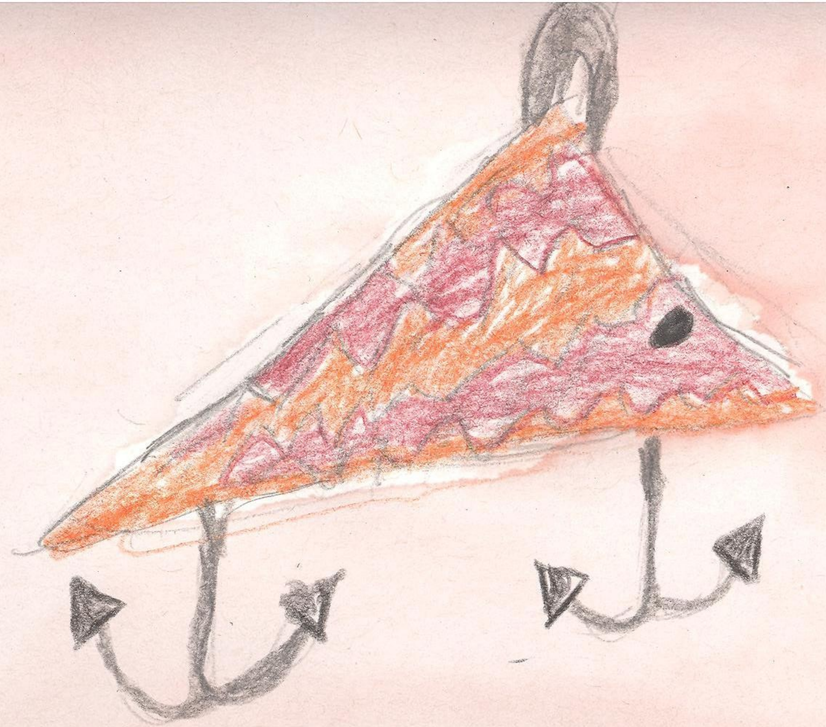
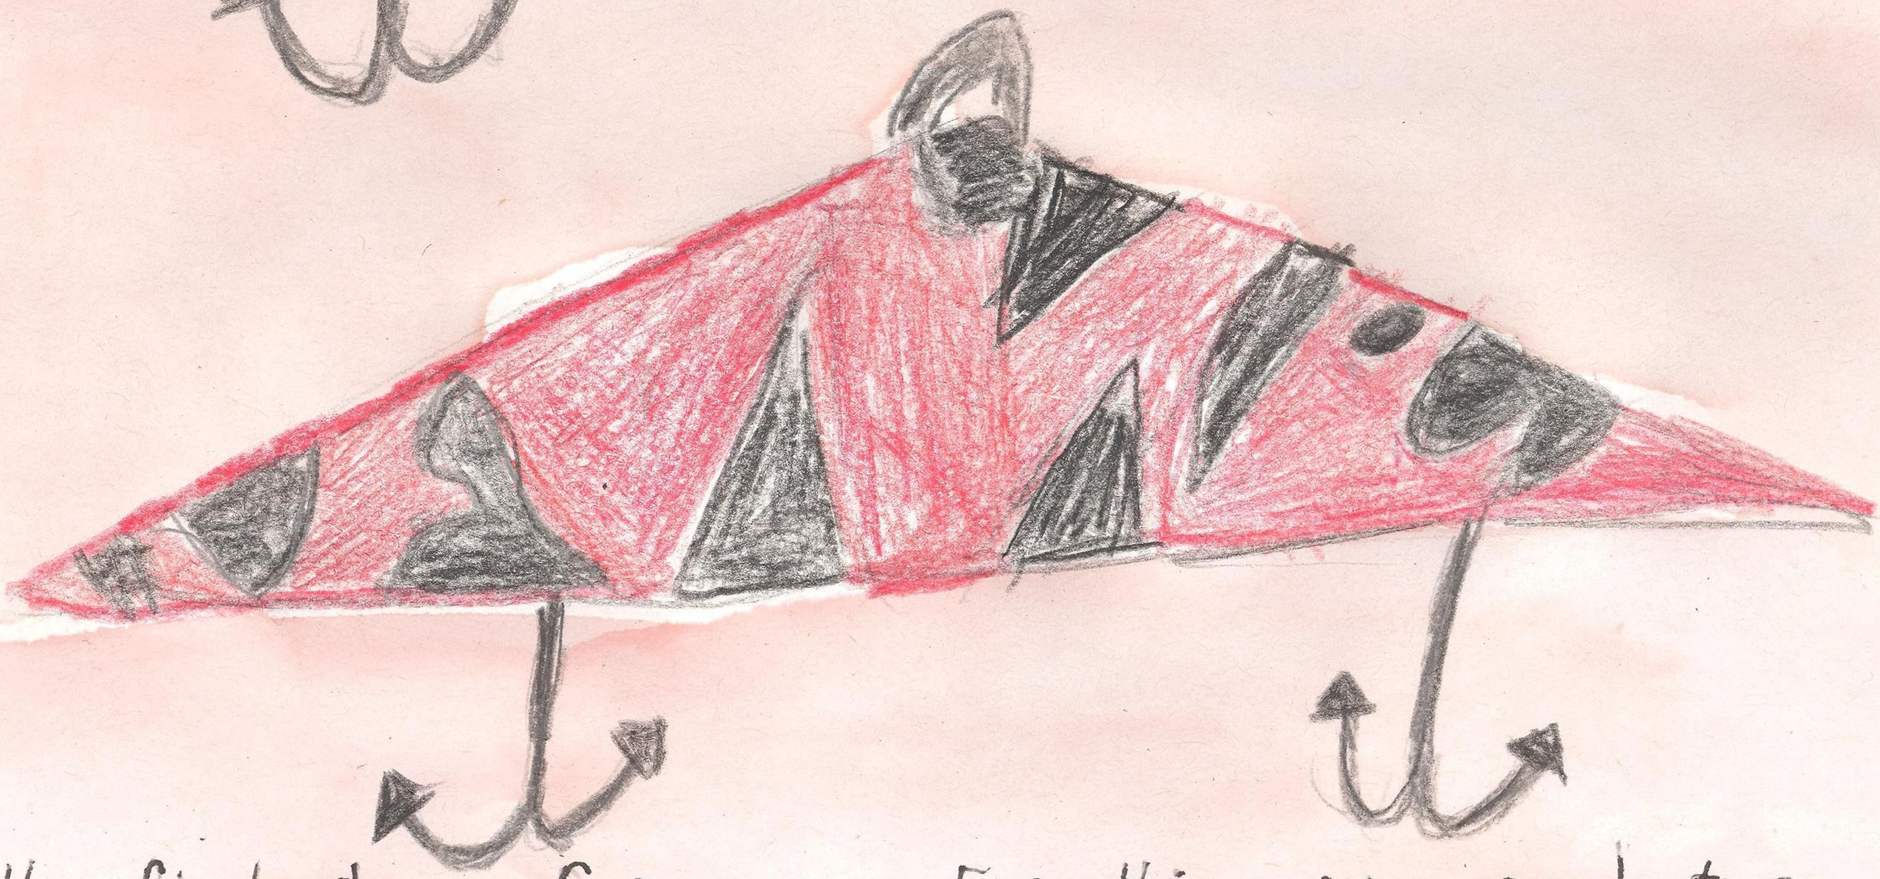
Missing
Lures

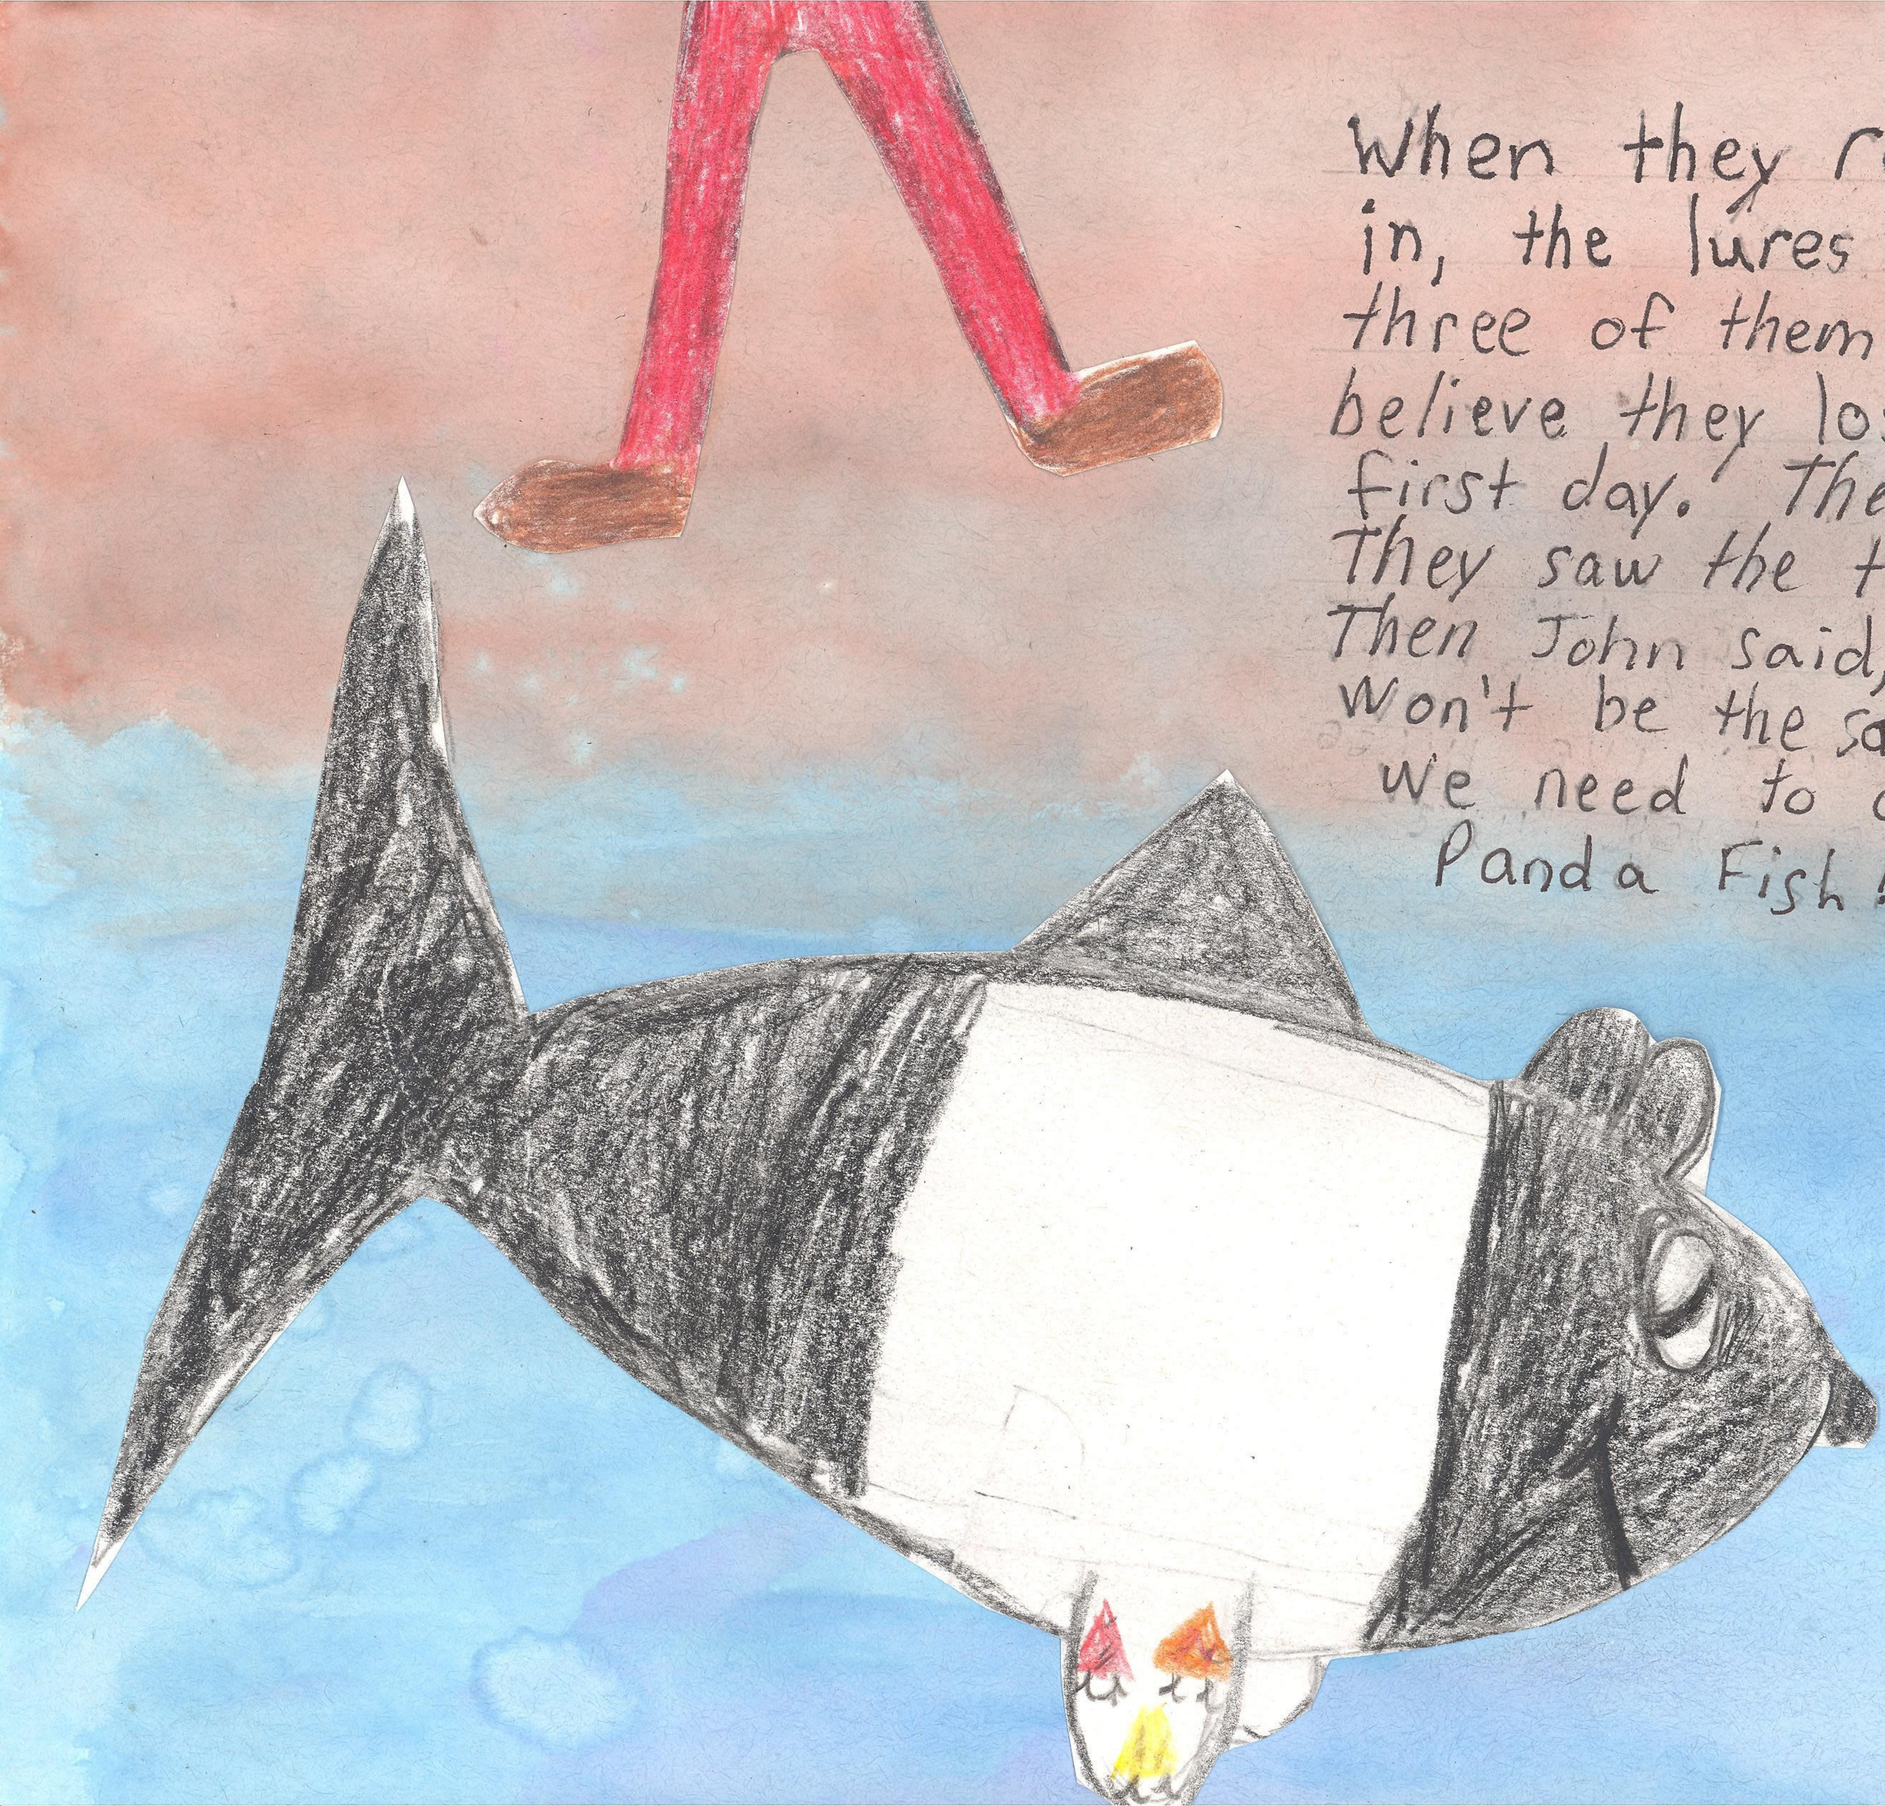
When Tony and Bernie were boys, their dad John would take them fishing to the best fishing hole. They would always catch the most colorful and biggest fish from the lake. It really helped when they used their three luckiest fishing lures.



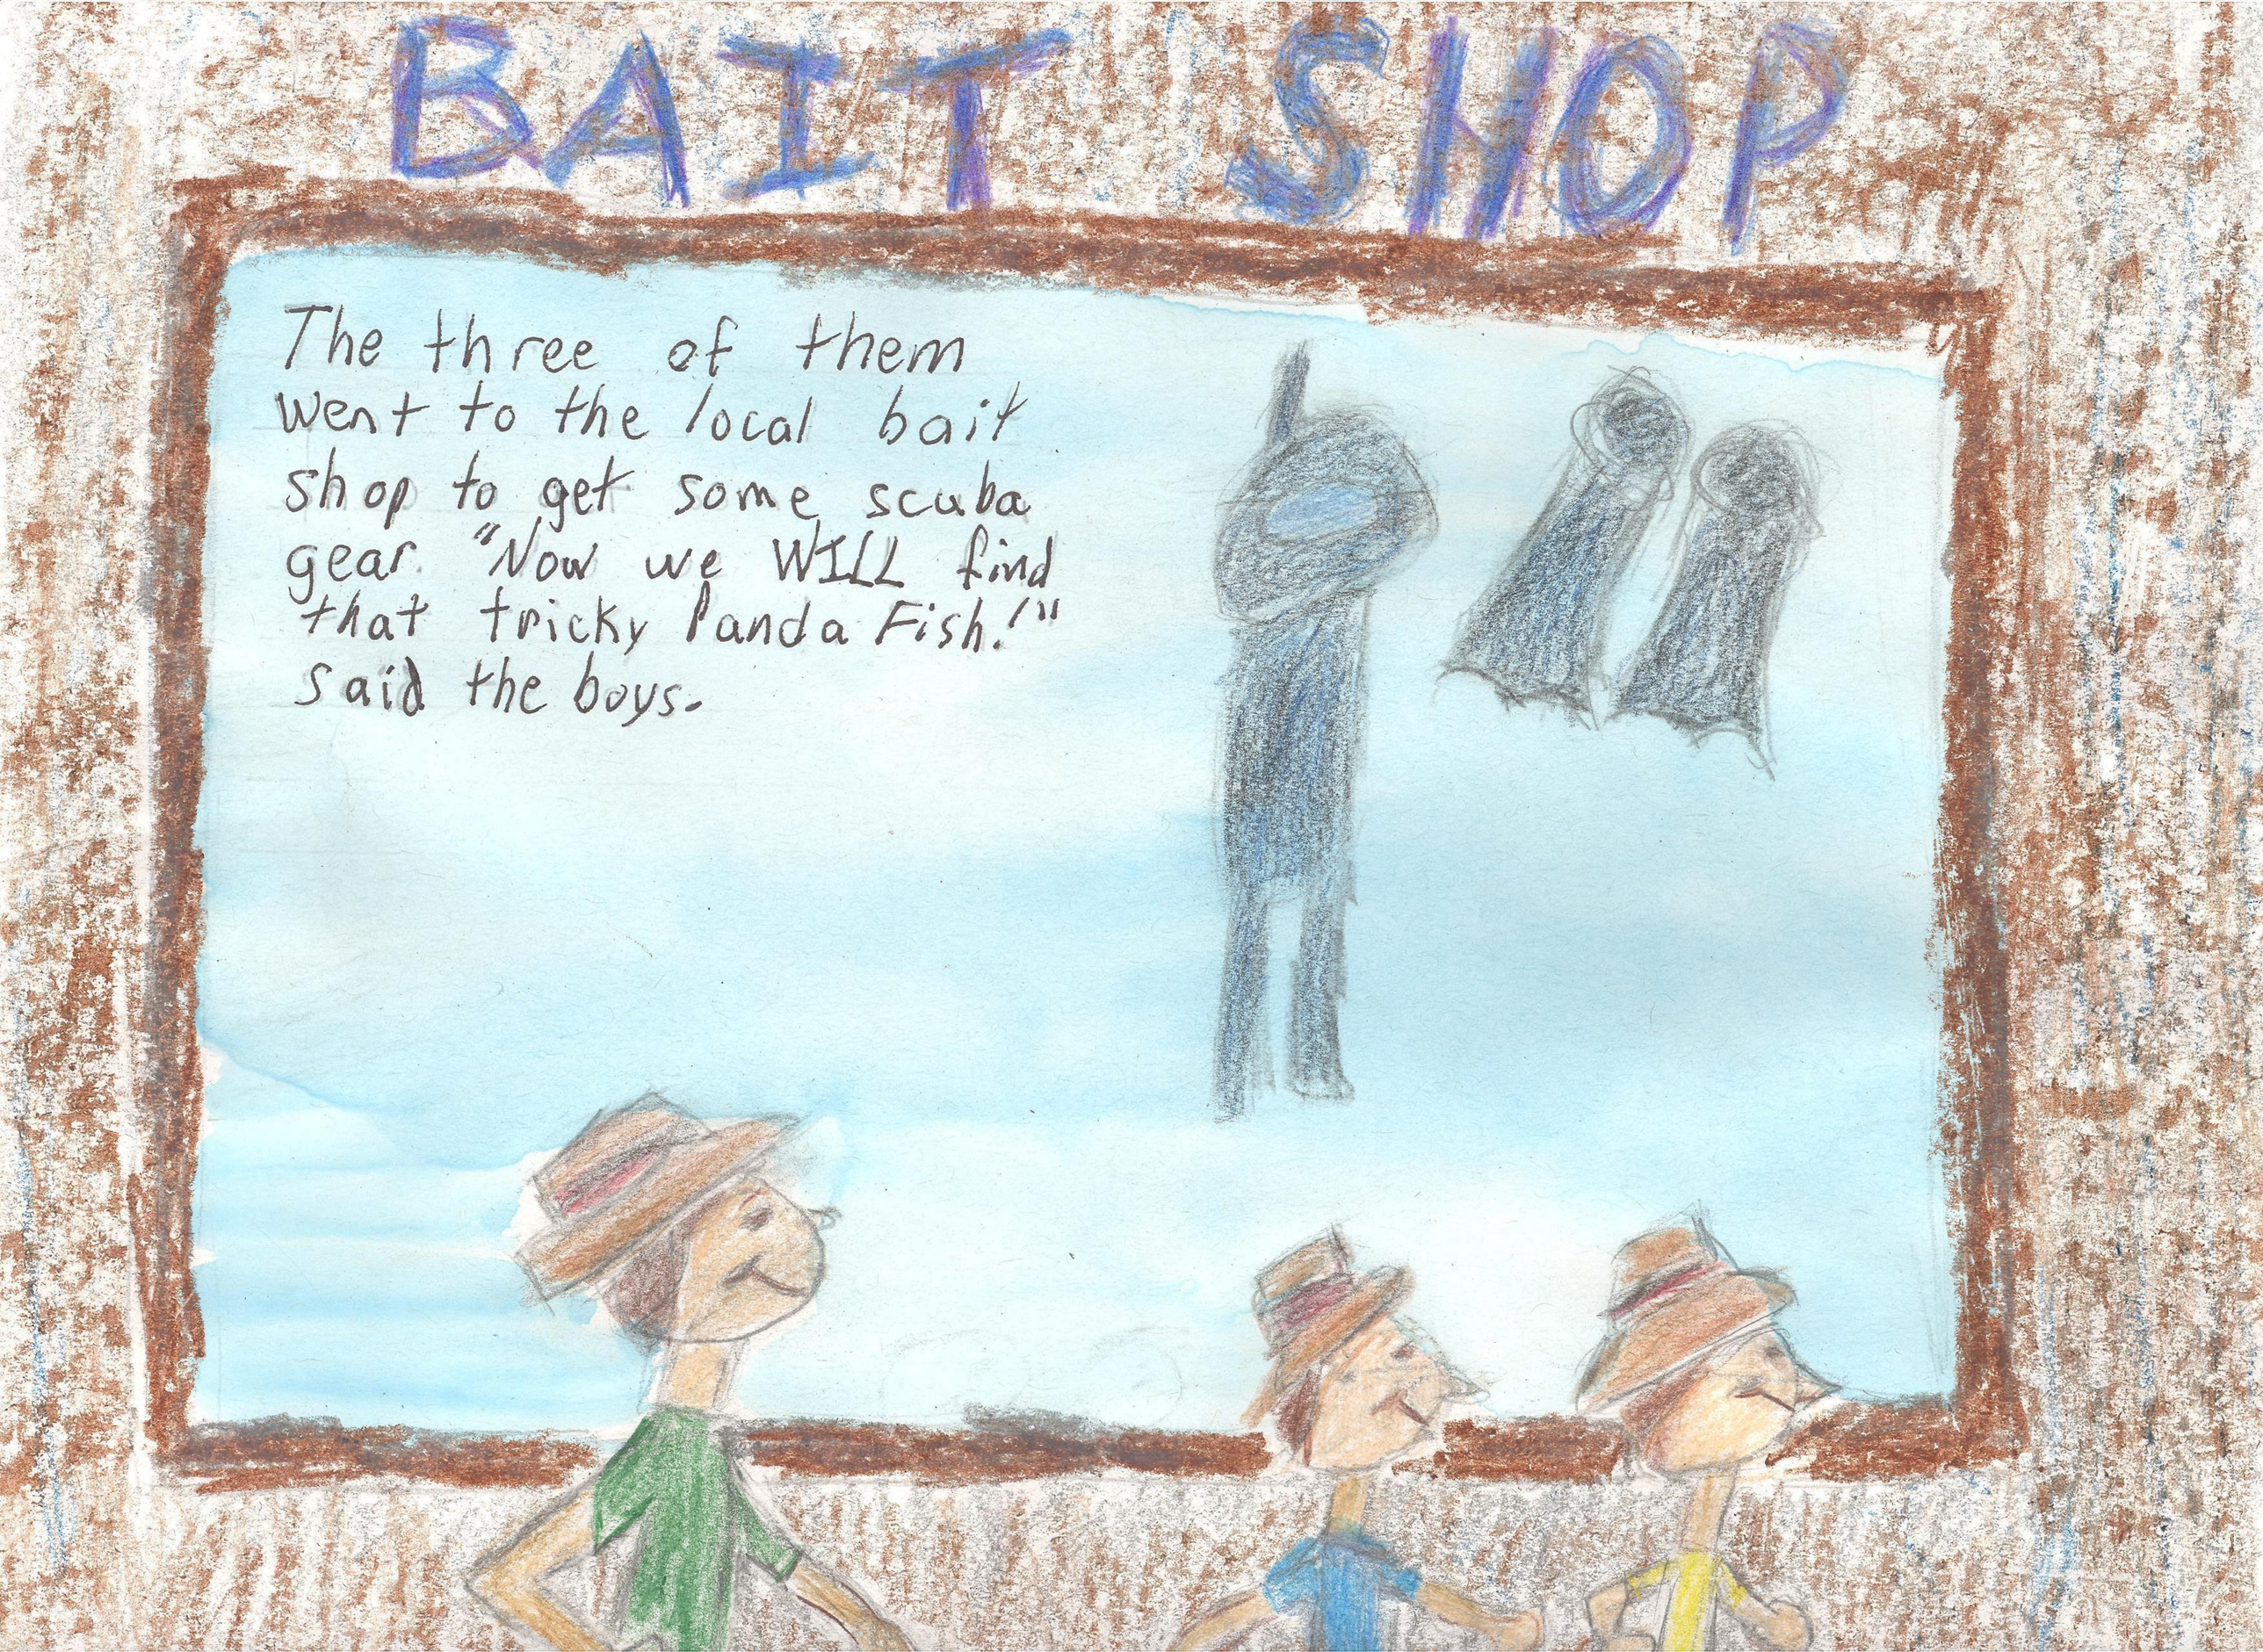




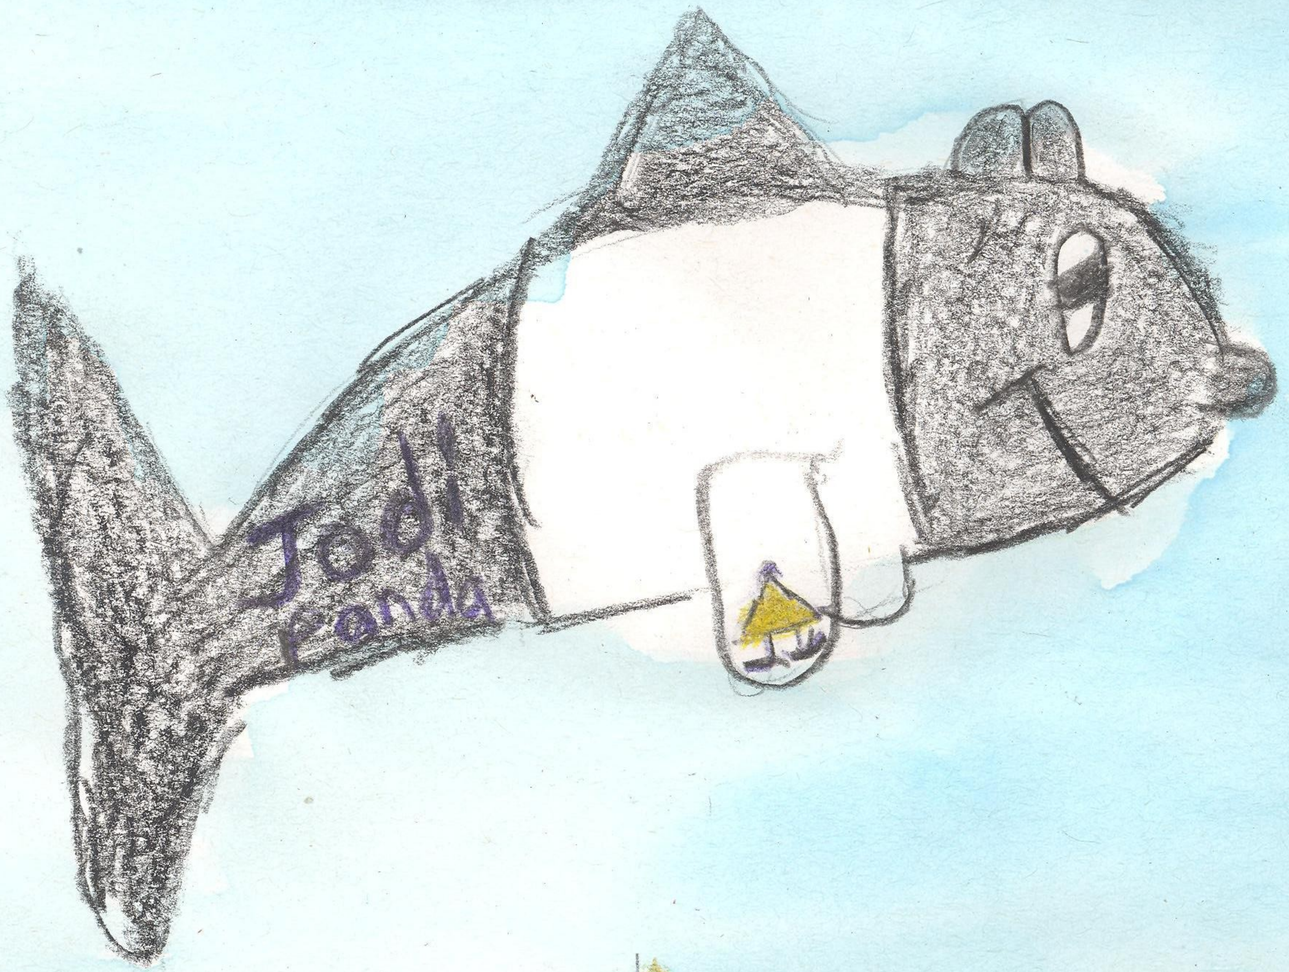
It was the first day of summer. Everything was good to go for their fishing adventure. When they got there John knew it was time to bring out the three lucky lures.

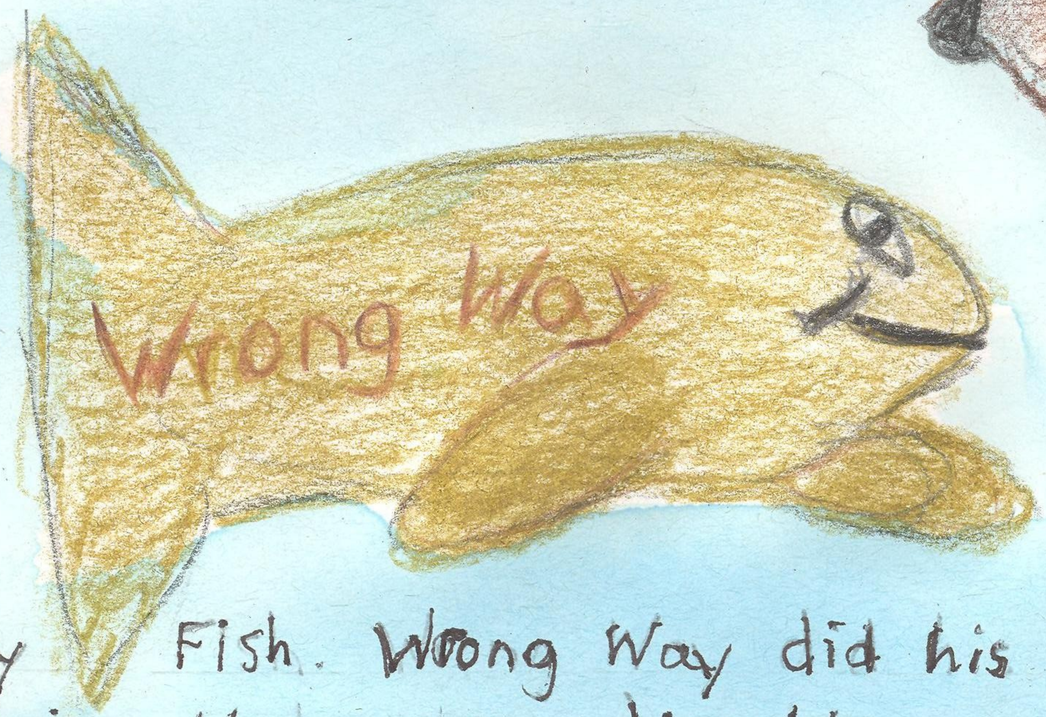


When they reeled their lines in, the lures were gone! The three of them just couldn't believe they lost all three on the first day. Then it happened. They saw the tricky Panda Fish. Then John said, "This fishing spot won't be the same! Somehow we need to catch that Panda Fish!"



BAIT SHOP
The three of them went to the local bait shop to get some scuba gear. "Now we WILL find that tricky Panda Fish!" said the boys.





In the meantime, Panda Fish went with Mac-n-Cheese Fish and Pup Fish to take the lures to the Great Wizards. On their way there, they swam into Wrong Way Fish. Wrong Way did his usual thing of giving the wrong directions.

He sent them thru the Great Wall of Seaweed.
They found out this route sent them to the three scuba divers. The three fish decided to turn back quickly before they were caught.

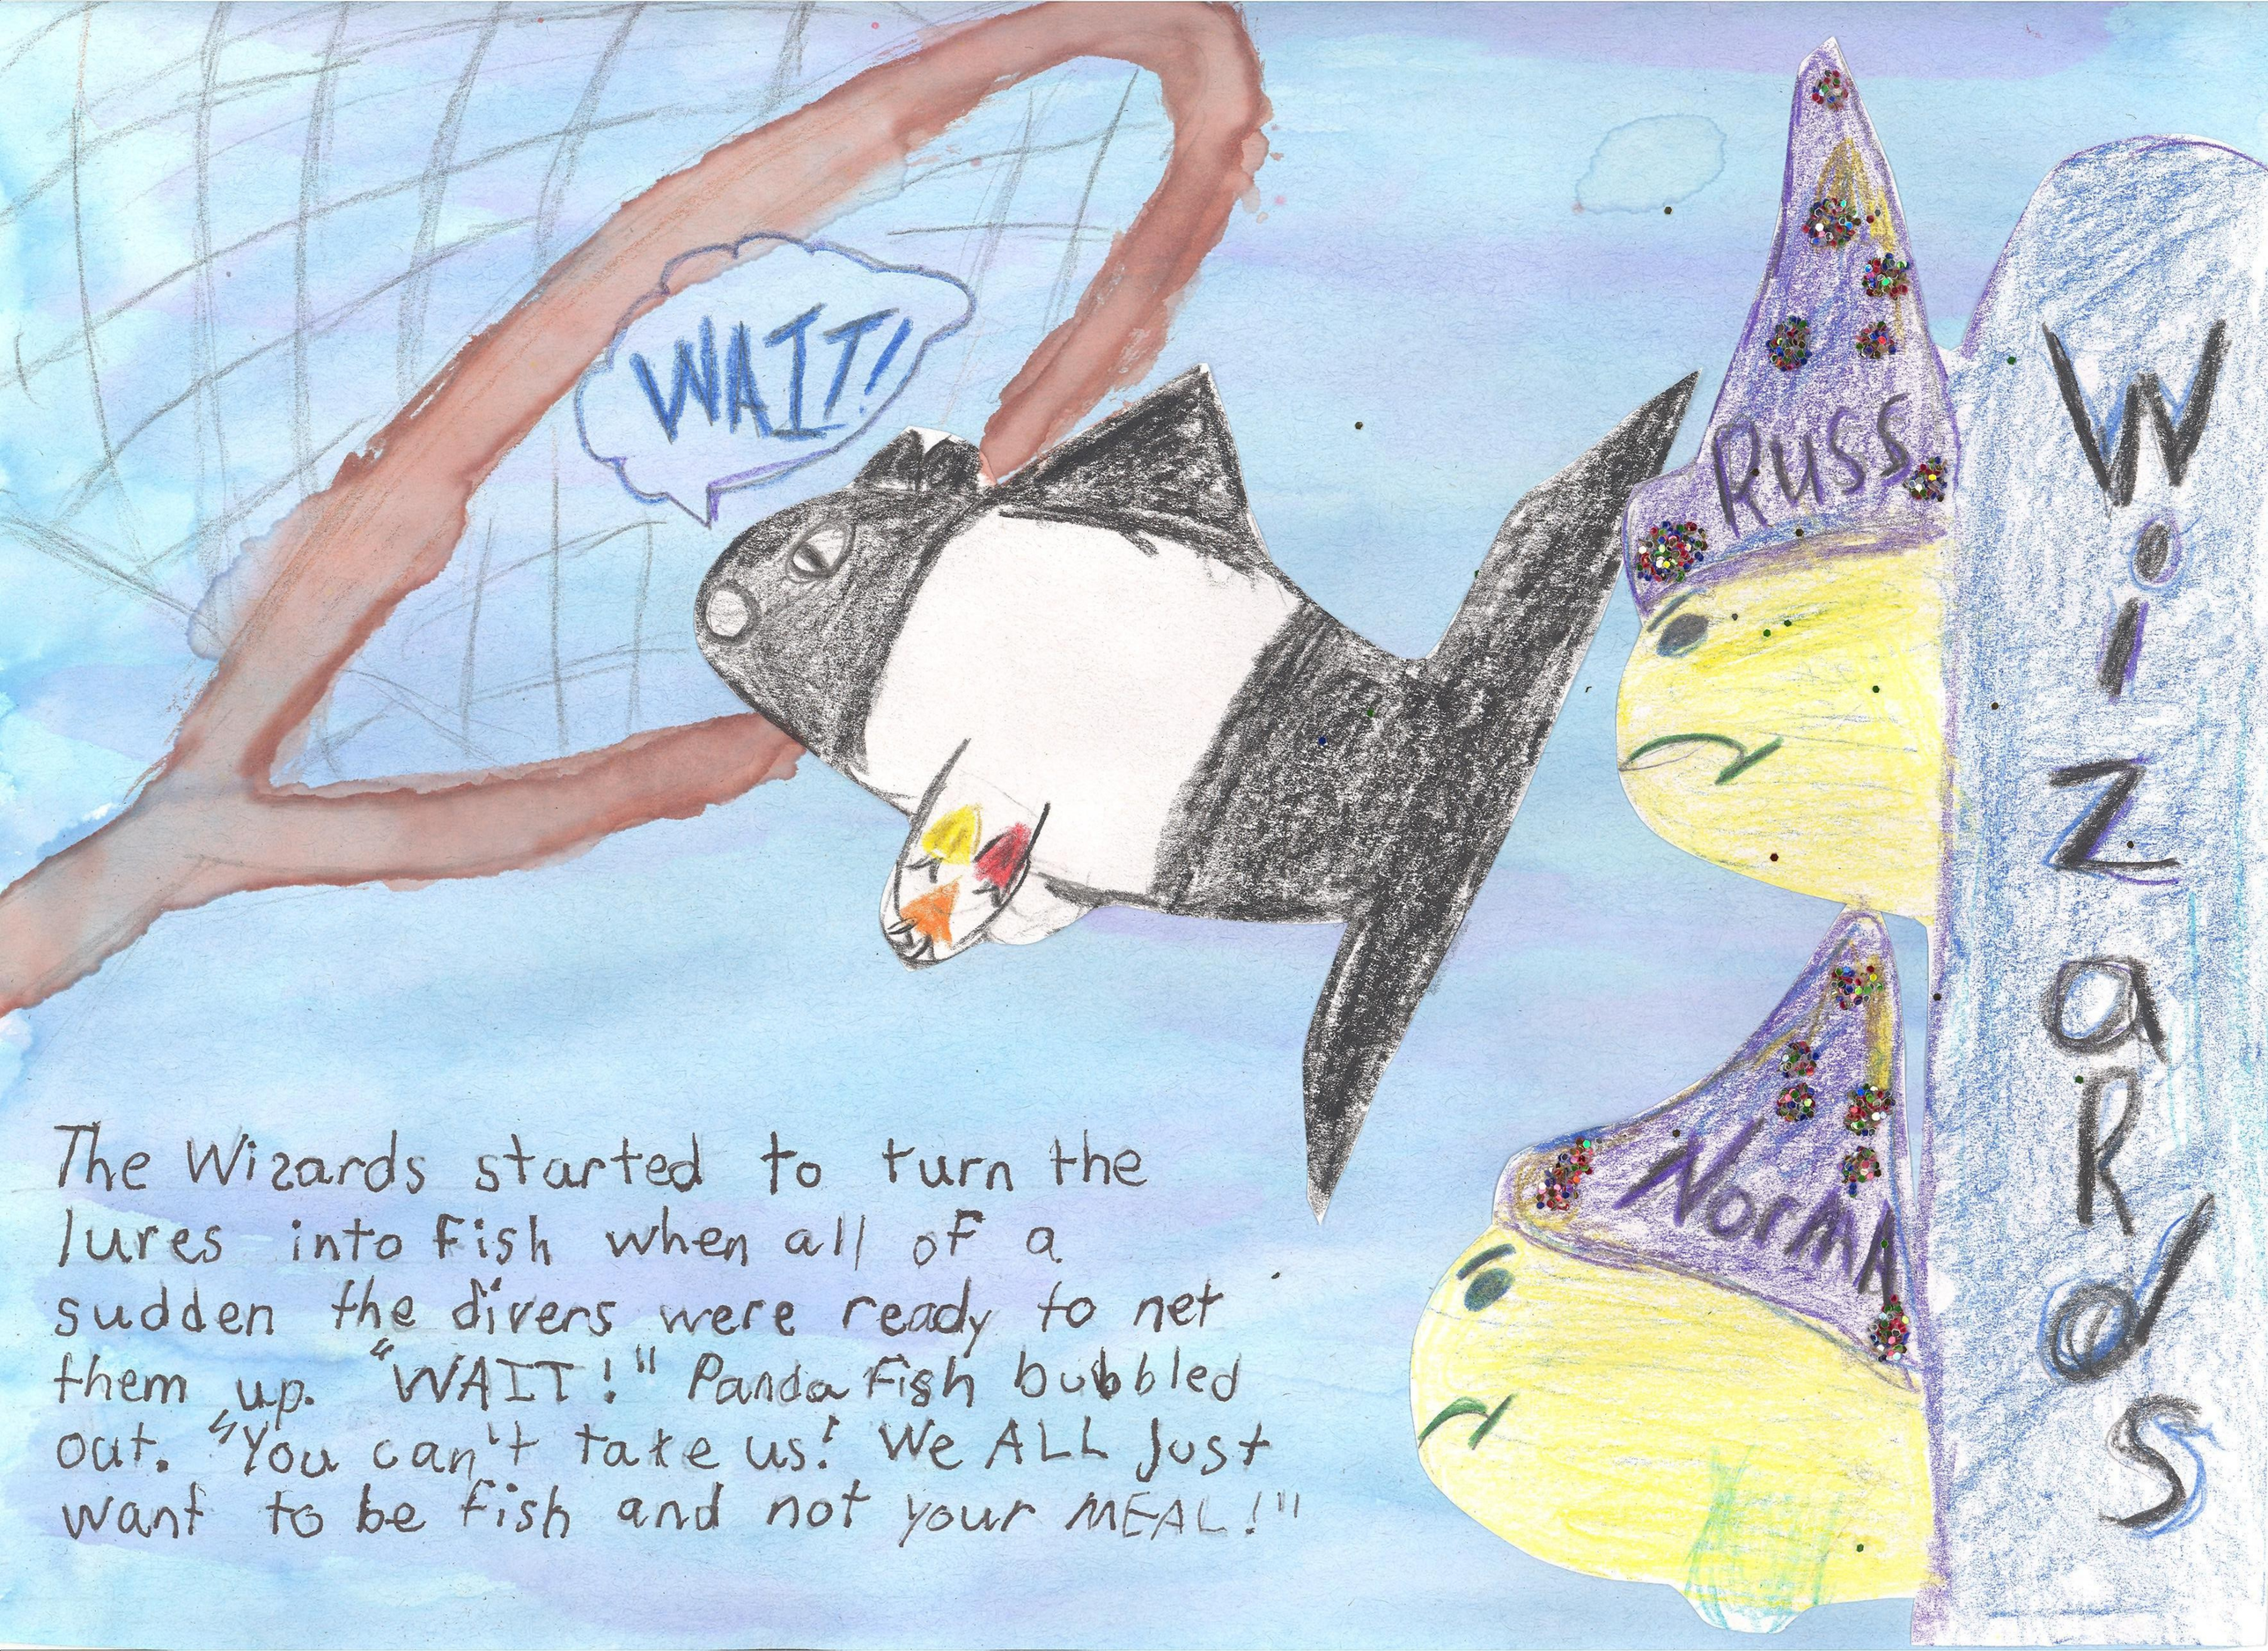
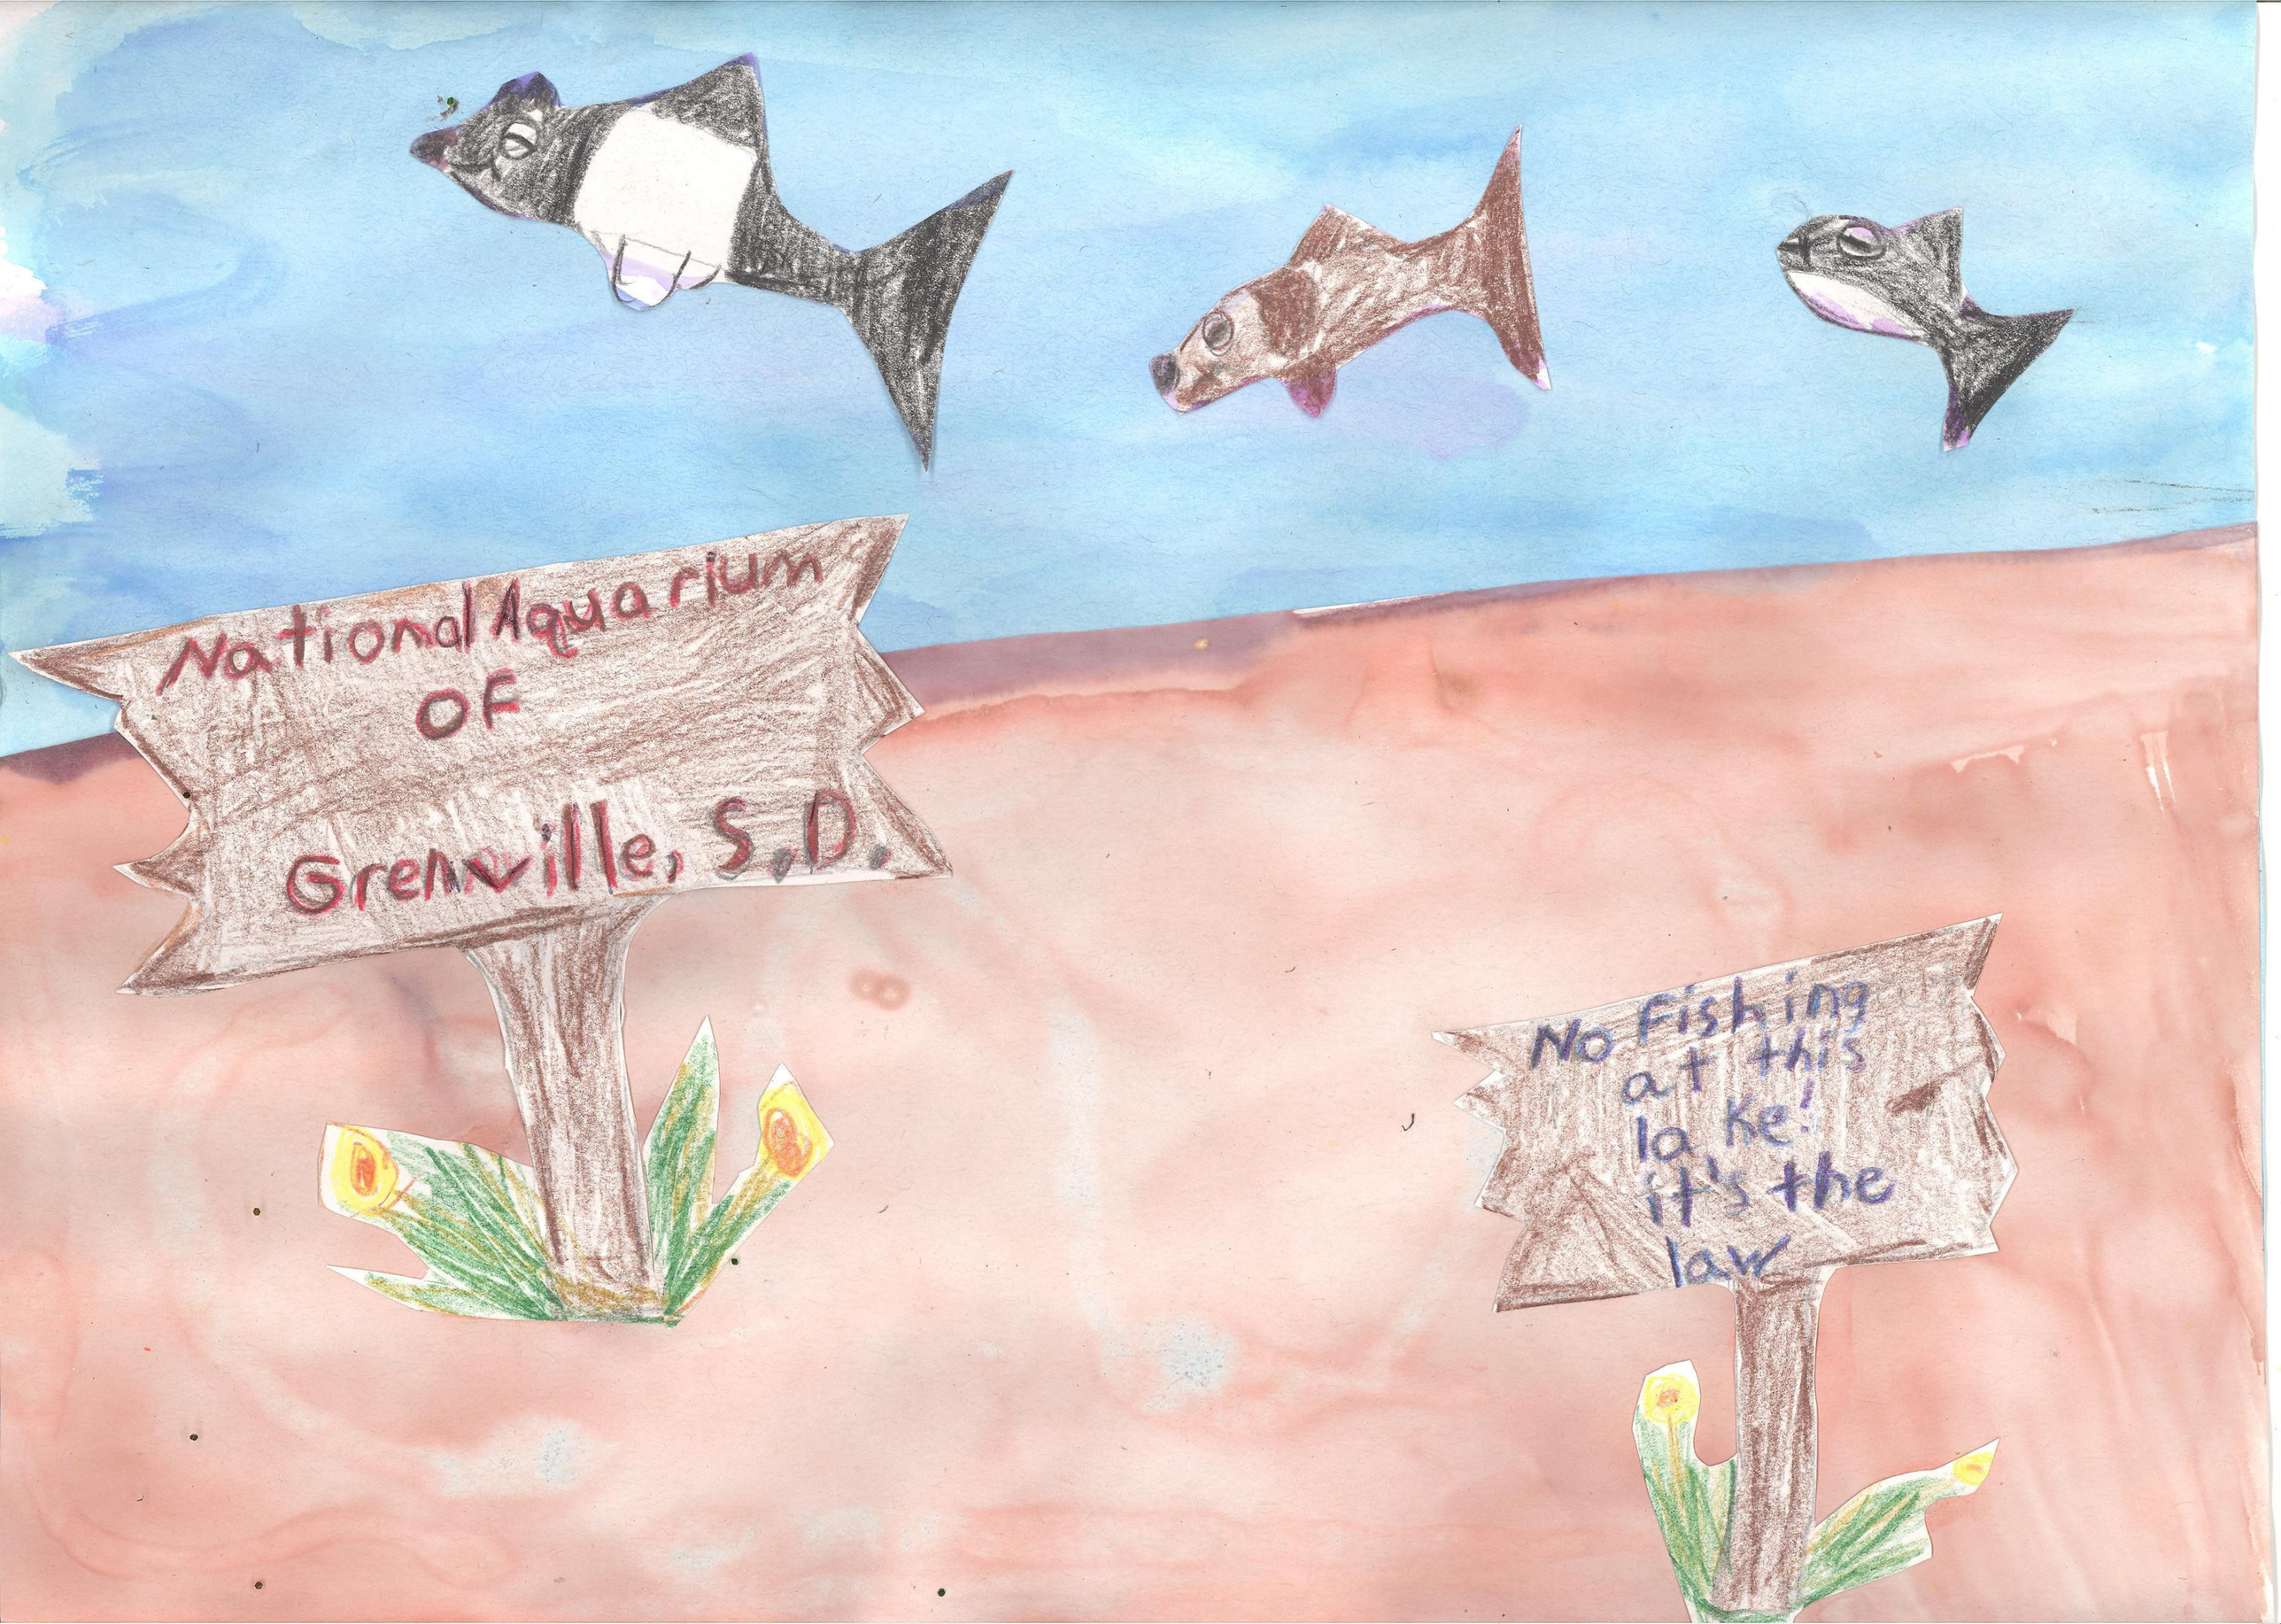
They swam quickly back to Wrong Way. "You sent us to the divers! Quickly, tell us what way to the Wizards!!!" Wrong Way thought and thought when a rush of bubbles spun him in many circles. From there the fish quickly swam to the wizards.



The Wizards started to turn the lures into fish when all of a sudden the divers were ready to net them up. "WAIT!" Panda Fish bubbled out. "You can't take us! We ALL just want to be fish and not your MEAL!"



National Aquarium
OF
Grenville, S.D.
No Fishing at this lake! it's the law