Lots of us will never have the opportunity to travel to different countries and learn more about cultures other than our own but in this book you and your child will have the opportunity to learn how to say “hello” in 42 different languages. Not only is your child getting the chance to try something new but so are you!

As you go from page to page, you may find a country that matches with your heritage. This will give you an opportunity to talk about your family’s background...where grandpa or great grandpa and grandma were born. Did they speak English when they were kids? This book can create a little family history for you and your child.
