

I SPY LITTLE ANIMALS

“I spy” a fun book to read with your child! Reading is fun and when you make a game of it, it’s even more fun.

Rhymes by Jean Marzollo

Photographs by Walter Wick

Ages: 0-2 years

Pages: 26 pages

Themes: Rhyming; animal identification; curiosity!

This book gives you and your child the opportunity to play right along while you read. Your child may already have an idea of what some of the animals are on the page on the left but it becomes even more fun when they have to find the animals on the page on the right.

When your child finds the animal on the right page, you can ask them some questions about the animal such as what sound the animal makes, have you seen one of these animals before, etc..

When you’ve had fun reading this book (once, twice or twenty times), you could pick out an item from home that your child is familiar with, whether it’s a favorite toy or a one of their shoes, and place it somewhere in their room and then have them find it. It’s kind of like hide-and-seek with an item. Spending time having fun together can’t be beat!
